THREE WRESTLING
BOUTS ON TONIGHTYoung Monday and Galvin in Star Attraction.

TYRRELL AFTER REVENGE

Will Try to Get It From Joe Rogers.
Dixie, the Human Scissors,
Meets Foley.

Jim Galvin, the Irish wrestling champion, should have his work cut out for him when he meets Young Monday tonight at Concordia Hall, Sixth and E streets northwest.

Galvin has won many laurels on the mat, but he has undertaken a large contract when he agrees to throw Monday twice in an hour. He has long been anxious to appear in this city, and began negotiations to that effect some months ago. His object was to meet Shad Link or some of the other Baltimore heavyweights, but arrangements could not be made. When Monday was proposed he accepted the offer, but refused, as was first suggested, to undertake to throw him three times in an hour, as he had seen the Italian in matches in Brooklyn, and knew that he was a hard proposition.

Galvin is a catch-as-catch-can wrestler, but is possessed of great strength and has been able to down some of the best Graeco-Roman experts at their favorite styles. In order to make future matches in Washington he has promised to go at a fast clip tonight and demonstrate just how good he is.

Tyrrell and Rogers.

The semi-wind-up between Harvey Tyrrell and Joe Rogers promises to be as interesting as the main bouts. Tyrrell's last bout was with Young Monday, and he was thrown by the Italian. His bout before that was with Mystery Brown, last season, when he was also thrown. It was desired to obtain revenge upon some one which caused him to take on Rogers tonight. Rogers is not very well known to local followers of the mat game, but is said to be a husky youth of about Tyrrell's weight and those who have seen him in private bouts say he is the real thing.

Another important bout before the Monday-Galvin set to will be between Howard Foley and the attorney's youth who calls himself Dixie. His bout before that was with Mystery Brown, the bantamweight champion of the South. Dixie resembles a pair of perambulating scissors, and can make a surprisingly low weight for a man of his height, but he is well versed in the finer points of the game and has become a popular favorite by his clean, quick work.

TURF NOTES.

The two-year-old Hector, owned by James Galway, and a starter in the race for the Hempstead Stakes at Jamaica yesterday, was crowded into the rail just as he moved to the front on the turn into the stretch, and struck the fence with such force as to cripple him and badly scrape the leg of jockey Perrine, who rode him. Hector stopped on the turn, and was unseated and led away, very lame.

James B. Brady, through his trainer, M. M. Allen, yesterday bought from H. B. Baker the fast two-year-old Holscher, by Lamplighter - Princess Lorraine, at private sale. The reported price was $10,000.

The speedy Western colt, Father Catchem, went to the post for his forty-eighth race since January, when he answered the call for the first race at Jamaica yesterday, and his bolting seemed to indicate that too much had been asked of him. His forty-ninth start probably came some time off, as Starter Cassidy ordered him on the schooling list after his misbehavior both on the way to the post and when in the starter's hands.

Beaten horses were claimed out of two selling races at Jamaica yesterday. In the six furlongs, C. E. Mahone, who ran Gavin C. took away J. A. Drake's four-year-old Rebo, said to be a $2,000 horse, and entered for $500. Rebo costing Mahone $1,000. In the Hempstead Selling Stakes, W. J. Harding, owner of Klingsor, claimed Sufficiency, entered by the Aubrey Stable to sell for $1,700, paying $3,280 for her.

In the arrangement of the weights for the Tamagawa Handicap, six furlongs, to be run tomorrow at Jamaica, the handicapper has set a precarious task for the great sprinter, Roseben. The gelding is made top weight, with 154 pounds, equivalent to 157 pounds for a horse of his age, or 34 pounds above the scale, and is required to concede 27 pounds to the next horse in the weights, Burleigh. While the concession he must make to the bottom weight is 66 pounds actual weight.

Jockeys Knapp and Miller came very near dividing the Jamaica program between them yesterday, the pair riding four of the six winners. Knapp was successful on Oak Duke and Alma Du-four, and Miller on Quadrille and Ark-lita.

High class bowling was the order in the Departmental League last night when Agriculture won two out of three from Commissioners.

In the opening game the Farmers tumbled 94, which is near the season's record, while Hofmann's 249, the high mark, is an especially good score for this season for the year.

St. Louis took two from Boston in the Plate Printers' League. There were no especially good scores in this set and Laud with 188 led.

The Reserves won the first and third game of the set from the Aldines in the Printers League. Atkins was high man with 215.

In the Postoffice League Mailing won two from Delivery, while in the Star-Duck Pin League the Minions took three straight from the Nonpareils.

OLD PEOPLE CONSTANT SUFFERERS

are seldom free from pains or ailments of some description, because they are not as able to withstand the severity of the climate, with its damp, changing weather, as are their younger, more vigorous companions. Cold weather starts the old aches and pains; they suffer with chilly sensations, cold extremities, poor appetite and digestion, nervousness, sleeplessness and other afflictions peculiar to old age. With advancing years the strength and vitality of the system begin to decline. The heart action is weak and irregular, the blood becomes thin and sluggish in its circulation, and often some old blood taint that has lain dormant in the system for years begins to manifest itself. A wart or pimple becomes a troublesome sore or ulcer, skin diseases break out, or the slight rheumatic pains felt in younger days now cause sleepless nights and hours of agony. There is no reason why old age should not be healthy and free from disease if the blood is kept pure and the system strong, and this can be done with S. S. S. It is a medicine that is especially adapted to old people, because it is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, selected for their purifying, healing and building-up properties, and is very mild and gentle in its action. S. S. S. warms and reinvigorates the sluggish blood so that it moves with more rapidity, and clears it of all impurities and poisons. As this rich, healthy stream circulates through the body every part of the system is built up, the appetite and digestion improve, the heart action increases and the diseases and discomforts of old age pass away. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, and all troubles arising from diseased blood.

Personal Comment on Affairs in the World of Sport

FOOTBALL.

It has been so long since Washington has seen a clever drop-kicker that considerable interest will be centered in the work of Captain Crowell, of Swarthmore at Georgetown field tomorrow. He is considered the best on the gridiron.

Considering the rate at which football players are being killed this year the President's effort to make it more gentle, ladylike game appears as a sort of corollary to his race-suicide theory.

Flat and parallel feet are given as one of the reasons for the naturality of Indian football players in running and punting, especially in punting.

George Woodruff is said to be teaching the Carlisle team a number of new formations to fool the other fellows to death. Isn't that somewhat familiar?

Due to the unfortunate train of events which has attended the Pennsylvania football team so far this season—accidents, disqualifications and illness of promising men—the coaches find that they must prepare for the preliminary games more carefully than at any time during recent years. Therefore, each Tuesday and Thursday hereafter will see secret practice at Franklin field.

Rorke and Dowling, two former Georgetown athletes, have agreed to play football and have opened offices in the Fendall building.

When the Vanderbilt team played at Michigan last Saturday and surprised the Westerners by holding the score to 18, the Southerners had no coach on the field as McGuigan, who has been in charge of the squad all season, was at the bedside of his sister, who is dangerously ill.

A call has been issued at Princeton urging more men to come out for football and strengthen up the squad. The call, which was signed by W. H. Edwards, 1900, who is coaching the scrub, appeared in the Daily Princetonian and read as follows: "It is doubtless apparent to every Princeton undergraduate as he watches the daily practice at University Field that the football team is very much limited. Many of our men are injured, and at this time the coaches feel that there are several men in college who have ability to play football and have not yet reported. To win from Yale this year we need the help of every Princeton man more than ever. Will not each undergraduate take a personal interest in this matter and urge all such possible men to come out?"

Phil King asserts that he will retire as a professional football coach at the close of this season. Edgar Holt, who played at Harvard and Princeton, is assisting King, and probably will succeed him next fall as head coach at Wisconsin.

Ex-Capt. John DeWitt of Princeton has temporarily forsaken the West, and has joined the coaching staff at Nassau.

Bummy Booth's Nebraska team will meet Yost's Michigan team tomorrow. Starbuck, of Cornell, has been chosen as head linesman.

Ristine, Harvard's former halfback, is coaching the "Ames" team, which, out-weighted by Minnesota, coached by Dr. Williams, also along Eastern system lines, was beaten 42 to 0.

There is nothing small about Coach Jim Hogan, of Exeter. He has invited Coach Hel of Harvard, to send coaches to Exeter, from time to time, to help develop the eleven for the Andover game.

Castleman, the Colgate halfback whose work was largely instrumental in beating Dartmouth, is the intercollegiate champion low hurdler, and was second to Amiel, of Pennsylvania, in the high hurdles.

It has been announced that O'Brien, Princeton right end, has received an injury to his leg which will keep him off the team for the rest of the season. Dutcher, center, has also given up hope of getting back in the game, on account of a strained back.

At New Haven Paul Dashiell now is said to stand better as an umpire than does McClung as referee. Joe McCracken, of Pennsy., will referee the Yale-Columbia game Saturday, and possibly may be the selection as referee for the Yale-Princeton game, November 18.

That story emanating from Ithaca that Thompson went to Cornell because Harvard and Yale agreed to allow him to do so, surely is a beautiful dream. The real reason is that Thompson's old Andover roommate, Schildmiller, has a fine laundry business at Ithaca and Thompson has been declared in.

BOXING.

Willie Leads, the welterweight, who is scheduled to hook up with Joe Wollcott for fifteen rounds, on October 28, at Detroit, Mich., is fast rounding into shape for the mill. Leads picks out the colored boy as the stepping-stone to championship.

Jimmy Walsh, bantamweight champion of New England, is to clash with George (Digger) Stanley, the bantamweight champion of England, for fifteen rounds at 116 pounds, tonight before the Douglas Athletic Club of Chelsea, Mass. The boys will box for a percentage and the club has posted a forfeit of $500 to show its good faith in the match.

The Empire Athletic Club, of Brooklyn, will open its doors to the boxing game on Wednesday night, November 1, at Atlantic Park, and will put on seven or eight three-round bouts between members of the club. Kid Murphy and Charlie Goldman, both of New York, will contest for the bantamweight championship of the club at the opening show.

Tony Bender, the Elizabeth, N. J., featherweight, who knocked out Tom O'Hara in Philadelphia last week, has been matched to meet Johnny Allen, of Philadelphia, for six rounds at catch weights in the semi-wind-up to the Corbett-Ernie fight on October 25.

Billy Melody, the welterweight who boxed Dick Fitzpatrick a six-round draw in Chicago a week ago, left for Spokane, Wash., where he will meet George Peterson, of San Francisco, for twenty rounds on October 28.

After six of the hardest rounds ever decided in the Broadway Athletic Club, of Philadelphia, ring, Jack Williams and Billy Burke made a draw of it last night. Kid Hilton did not last one round with Charley Cannon in the wind-up at the Manayunk Athletic Club.

Dave Deshier, featherweight, and Matty Baldwin, have been matched to meet for fifteen rounds at catch weights before the Douglas Athletic Club, of Chelsea, Mass., on October 24.

AUTOMOBILING.

Efforts are being made to hold a series of mile and kilometer races on the Atlantic City beach on October 27 and 28. A number of the foreign drivers who took part in the Vanderbilt race have been invited to compete.

Callos, one of the leaders in the Gordon Bennett race this year in France is in New York on a brief visit. He will remain there about two weeks, making a study of automobile conditions before returning home. He will not appear in any competitions during his stay.

George Heath, the Vanderbilt Cup winner last year and who got second this season, has decided to prolong his visit and will not sail for Paris until next month. His two Panhard cars will be sent back this month.

A meeting of the touring committee of the American Automobile Association will be held on Friday at the Automobile Club of America. Plans will be outlined for the Glidden Cup tour next year. It is probable that the tour will extend to Chicago with the return trip through Canada. Mr. Glidden and a number of active automobilists favor this trip, and they believe that nearly a hundred cars will be entered next year.

RACING.

Now that the baseball season is over the turf-war correspondents and space writers are beginning to take a more cheerful view of life.

Both Condon and Corrigan could get out of racing without endangering the peace of the country at large.

Sporting editors in Washington will be unusually popular this fall since the Benning admission rate has been advanced from $1.50 to $2. File applications early or late—you won't get it anyhow.

Wonder if always playing the Garth entries would prove as successful at the fall Benning meeting as it would have proved at the spring meeting?

It's queer how long you can play long shots without having it brought home to you that the handbook has a 20 to 1 limit.

La Sorciere, bought by C. E. Rowe in St. Louis for a price said to have been $15,000 and the medium of a big betting coup at Belmont Park in the spring, made his first appearance in a selling race at Jamaica yesterday, when he was entered to sell for $1,700, and won in easy style. La Sorciere has failed so consistently to live up to his spring promise that there was no bid on him, horsemen seeming to believe that he properly belongs in the selling class.

Ralph Rose has not joined any football teams, and Bob Fitzsimmons has not challenged anybody for a week, yet they say the world is getting better.

Possibly the constant fumbling this year is due to the effect of writers' cramp, acquired in working out the blackboard problems in football.

Princeton has suffered a loss that will undoubtedly hurt for a time. Trainer Jim Robinson will not return from the leave of absence tendered him by the Princeton management until the middle of November.
